

For the FCC to prevent XM, or any other satellite radio service, from offering locally oriented programming would be a blatant First Amendment violation. Furthermore, the FCC's role is to protect the public interest, not to protect broadcasters from new competition. Restricting satellite radio services from offering localized programming would only accomplish the latter, not the former. Therefore I urge the FCC to reject the NAB's petition 04-160.